MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The Mid-Hudson Food & Wine Society is an organization of individuals with a common interest in the enjoyment, study and art of food and wine. The society sponsors events annually, which include monthly dinners, wine tastings and seminars, food demonstrations, winery tours and other special events. The Society provides scholarship dollars to local CIA students which are presented at a CIA event in January. The Society's Annual meeting is in October with dinner at a Hudson Valley location. Membership is for one year, January through December.
